Propaganda --

Turkey -- I think it is remarkable that, in its maiden effort, my computer program for analyzing three-player games has succeeded. No supply centers have been lost, and the enemy has been beaten off. There is little likelihood of the enemy progressing unless England brings in reinforcements. Unfortunately, during the summer I will not be able to use the computer. Therefore I will make the moves, trying to use the same general principles as those employed by the computer. Watch out, Italy. You may relay those astute comments to the enemy.

Propaganda --

Bonn -- Kaiser Wilhelm II expressed his deep regrets over this whole Peery mess. Willy said, "I must agree with the Pope that a Christian crusade is needed to clean up this Peery mess in East Germany. I think that all 'good' leaders in the Diplo world must now study the distinct possibility that Buddy Tretick is in reality Larry Peery. Also, we must study the degree that Hal Naus is a hired henchman and/or satellite of Larry Peery. Just note his perfidious actions in game after game. What a blood-lust! Yes, fellow rulers, we are faced with a horrible situation: Good losing to Evil." ##### The Kaiser went on to state that, "I feel Mr. Don Miller, the GM, is either Larry Peery in disguise (including the spare tire) or in his pay."

Constantinople (March 19) -- Don't rat, Buddy.

Russia -- Political pressures requiring documentary treaty have insulted the Czar, who seeks to avenge a broken alliance with certain trusting allies.

Russia -- Swift, total mobilization of Red forces brings about quick victory and restoration of peace on the continent. Needless to say, also a top rating.

St. Peeryburg -- The Tsar, Che Peeri, appeared before the gathered court at the Greenebean Patch in his Greene and Paiseley Bermudas to once again extoll the virtues of Law and Order, Motherhood, the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, negroes (sic), apple pie, the Republican Party, peaceful protest through constitutional provisions (particularly the courts), while being against riots, intimidation, violence, "or anything else". ##### Upon completion of the Tsar's eulogy, the captive Herzog Greene turned to one of his guards and remarked, "Makes one almost wish he was in Australia. Oh well...."

Propaganda --

Berlin -- Vienna: Let's put it this way: If any foreign troops enter Tyrolia or Bohemia, some army commanders might forget treaties. The German High Command sees no reason, except a hostile one, for any Austrian units to enter these areas. We are sorry if the signatories take offense at this attitude, but as they well know, our southern troops are a little jumpy.

Berlin -- Moscow: Thanks for the unexpected help, but it wasn't really necessary. There are greener and warmer lands to the south.

G'ville -- Steve, do you ever have an ally? But remember, you started it here.

Rome -- King Eduardo I today affirmed what has been common knowledge in European diplomatic circles since the winter of 1901 -- namely, that a state of peace exists between the Italian Empire and the Council of Vienna. ##### It was agreed that the two states shall maintain garrisons in their adjoining provincial centers as a safeguard against treachery. Full and total cooperation was pledged by the Italian Empire in assisting the campaign against the Turkish infidels.

Propaganda --

A-H -- I will fight valiantly to the end with what loyal forces I have left! I will my country to my ally (?), whomever he may be. (You conniving slob!) I wish that my body be buried in Braunau. Braunau is a very beautiful village this time of year, just as it was in 1889. Afterwards, however, Braunau became the site of tyranny. Tyranny will return, be it Russian peasants, Ottoman Turks, or Italian wops, to this lovely town soon. May it rest in peace.

Bucharest -- There is fighting in the streets here as the common people of Rumania rise up against the scurrilous Russian invaders. The situation is in doubt -- especially since it is understood that other major powers intend to come to the aid of the Rumanian people -- but who are these other powers?

Germany -- Germany requests Red Cross aid from Russia, England, Italy, and France, in hopes of somehow establishing neutrality.

Novgorod -- The Tsar of Holy Russia is in a fury because of certain news reports from Warsaw that attributed certain statements to him. He has said, "Such rubbish!"

What means Ohio, anyway? Any statements made by me will be issued here in 450-room Spring dacha or in my humble palace in St. Petersburg. Now where is that crazy clown, Rasputin? My wife will be entertained."

Sao Paulo -- Rumors have been flying in this neutral port. The rumor gaining most attention is about the aims of the Russians. It is said that Russia intends to obtain its Mediterranean ports, and that the czar is talking about that "sick man, that very sick man".

Deadline for FALL, 1902 moves -- Noon, Tues., July 16 (AUT/WINT '02 deadline Jul.30).

Propaganda --

Austria -- Germany: Freddy isn't the only one out of his tree in this game. I am impressed by anyone who rakes leaves up in the trees. That shows foresight. Freddy was early for Fall.

Austria -- Austria wishes to announce her long-lasting friendship to Turkey.

Austria -- Italy: I'd. get back in my tree and out of Trieste or I'll see you in Venice next season.

Budapest -- Who is kidding whom? The Hungarians remain loyal to Hungary.

Constantinople -- A new government has been formed with a new constitution.

The Young Turks now control all governmental processes. Their leader, M. Kemal, has asked all nations to disregard previous actions and statements of the Turkish governmental organization, because a new policy of co-existence is to be tried. Is anyone interested?

Kiev -- The Czar says he is a sick man. It is not quite understood who that sick man is. The Prince of Gorinsk claims that the Dual Monarchy is a friend of Slavic peoples and intends to advise the Tsar to give his aid to that conglomerate nation. One would think he has certain designs on Princess Margaret of Alford.

Westminster -- With the death of "Vicky", the greatest days of the English Empire faded into the past. Yet, as Edward VII took his Coronation Oath many present felt that a new age was dawning. The Duke of Greenwich was asked after the Coronation just what the Government's policy would be. The head of the Liberal Party in the House of Lords replied, "Our party expects to take over from Salisbury's Government after the elections this spring. When this takes place you can depend upon three things: (1) Home Rule; (2) anti-Imperialistic and anti-Limp; (3) anti-Peery. #### "Unfortunately, the late Queen and the present Conservative Government failed to recognize this monstrous tyranny. Our Government feels that Peeryism in its worst forms are present in Europe now. Wherever it must be it must be smashed or else this blight will overcome us all. #### "Leaders of Europe, I appeal to your good sense. If any of you feel at any time your mind being clouded with dark thoughts, then the insidious threat of Peeryism is knocking at your door. Peery is present. He must be discovered."

Propaganda --

Gondor -- Gondor's palace is buzzing with the news of the Lady of Gondor's forthcoming marriage to His Highness Yadtsid V ab-Zaydath-Alla's son and heir Zaydath-'Alla as agreed in a marriage contract between the Steward of Gondor for his daughter and the father of Zaydath-'Alla, the beloved and lamented Yadtsed V. The punishment of Rhovanion by all powers of Middle-Earth is also in progress.

Mirkwood -- Harad: This new ruler better not get out of hand -- Mordor is growing!

Mirkwood -- The Shire: Move south and there will be no war between us.

Umbar -- His Imperial Majesty, Empery Zaydath-'Alla VIII, has reversed the foreign policy of Harad, declaring alliance with Arnor and Mordor, and war upon the perfidious state of Rhovanion. "The King of the wood-elves," said His Majesty, "has proved himself faithless and untrustworthy. He was very well aware of the fact that one of the terms of Our alliance with him was his alliance with Angmar. This term he has repeatedly broken; therefore, we of the Haradrim can no longer regard the pledged word of Wayne Oath-Breaker as being worth even so much as its weight in orc-dung. As a result, We are renewing Our alliance with the Dark Lord of Barad-Dur, who may be nasty and evil and red-eyed, but at least he's honest. In consequence, also, we must contract friendship with the King of Arnor, requesting only that he cooperate with the Witch-King of Angmar in bringing to heel the overwhelming force of the Traitor of Mirkwood. As a sign of Our good will, We are returning to the Dark Lord his castle of Barad-Dur, completely rebuilt and refurbished, with newly-cast gates of mithril, new dungeons of the dankest stone, and hordes and hordes of loyal hungry orcs.. They are hungry, primarily for elf-meat. We know where they can find plenty, just a wee bit north. Additionally, we call upon the Lady of Gondor to join in the Crusade against the Forsworn One of the North. Middle-Earth, unite -- you have nothing to lose but 11 treacherous armies; you have nothing to gain but 11 fat supply centers. Die, Rhovanion, die, die!!!"

Propaganda --

Apache -- Shoshoni: Do not worry about the move to Navaho. It is defensive in nature.

Madrid -- ". . . and in addition to much gold and other divers riches, I bring slaves from the land of Misipa and Miami, brought to us by your majesty's allies in the New World, the Apaches, and their southern neighbors, the Aztec, to whose Montezuma your highness's aid has at last restored his throne...." -- from a letter to King Philip III by Mendez de Aviles, governor of the West Indies.

Miami -- Illinois promise many scalps to show our Iroquois brothers what Illinois do to Apache thieves. No more will Apache creep like jackals upon Muskogean and Illinois. Even the Ghosts are against Apaches, for the spirit of Fill-a-lot appeared in the camps of the Apaches! Many died then and many will die now. No Muskogean, or Caddo, or Illinois will serve the Apache women who pass themselves off as braves. Weeping is heard in the tents of the Apache.

San Carlos -- Fools of the east, know that the Apache are invincible. They and their allies, the men of the northern mountains, cannot be turned back. The craven Iroquois, safe in the forests of their cold homeland are no match for us. You know of the prowess of the Illinois and Muskogean. Our allies show the mettle of the Blackfeet. Who is worth the notice of the Western tribes?

Broken Land -- The Great Chief Haiienthwatha reported to the Council of 50 that Iroquois war parties are poised on the borders of our brothers, the Illinois, to aid the courageous but out-numbered Princess Winna fight off the Apache invaders, should a request for such help be forthcoming. He also stated that help would shortly be on the way for our hard-pressed allies, the Muskogean. Runners were sent to the Princess and to Chief Beer-Belly of the Muskogean relaying Haiienthwatha's words.

The Council also discussed with Haiienthwatha the growing danger presented to the tribes of the northern woodlands by the massing Shoshoni warriors in the conquered Blackfoot territory. Runners were sent to the great Shoshoni Chief requesting clarification of the intentions of the Shoshoni, and an alliance to turn back the ever-growing Apache menace. #### Death to the enemies of the Ongwanosionni! Long live Great Chief Haiienthwatha! All hail the Iroquois Confederacy! Hail! Hail! Hail! Hail! Hail! Aiiiiiiiiiyy!!!!!!

Propaganda --

England -- France: Stop this nonsense immediately. I don't want war, and peace is much more profitable.

Germany -- The recent move of the English fleet into German waters can be construed as nothing less than an act of war. This government has acted accordingly!

London -- Turkey: Please return that next time. You can afford it, and it helps both of us.

Paris -- Due to temporary financial difficulties, the returns from the Paris Bourse were smaller than expected this season; however, all payments including 12 to Italy plus three additional to Germany plus interest to each will be paid in Fall. Moreover, the returns from the investment pool are expected to be even larger next year, as France returns the generosity of her trading partners.

Rome -- A Military Justice Tribunal here today decreed that Capt. Walker, the Commander responsible for giving ground support to the wrong fleet, would be punished as follows: he has been assigned to PERMANENT DUTY IN SYRIA!

Turkey -- Italy: I want peace, and you've blown your chance for easy pickings in France, whose economy is going to be blown apart by Germany. You stupid idiot! Well, what else would you expect from an Italian?

Turkey -- Austria, and/or Germany: Help! Money! Arms! Troops! Moral support, even!

Versailles -- King Pippin IV announced that diplomatic efforts to prevent war with England have now reached the crisis level. His Majesty said, "English threats to invade French territory have been taken to be mere propaganda. However, We cannot discharge Our duties to the realm if We do less than take all necessary actions to defend Ourselves against the latest English arrogance. The only major problem remains the Calais Straits; however, England also threatens Our ally, Germany, and We cannot see Germany destroyed."

Propaganda --

Rome -- To the nations of the world, most especially those at war with the Kingdom of Italy: The only nation with whom we are irrevocably at war is the Russian Empire. All others, including the Republic of France, we will consider as we would any erring neighbor. We will not undertake offensive operations against the Ottoman Empire, the British Empire, or the Republic of France, as our moves of this season show -- we have acted defensively against the French Republican Navy and have, we hope, aided the Ottomans in holding on to their capital city against the onslaughts of the Russians. ##### We are the first to confess our warmth towards the "other Latins" to our west, but we are also the first to acknowledge that our diplomacy in their area has been less than perfect. This is true of, I suppose, all the countries -- we have been less than candid about our aims, and less than perfect in our military policy. However, we hope this missive clarifies our intentions. ##### Most especially as far as our policy with regard to France, we assure the President that his forces now in Russia will not be attacked, and urge him to withdraw his fleets now operating in the Western Mediterranean and in Spain. We would sincerely hope that indeed the day of the hegemony in Europe of the Latin peoples, both French and Italian, has come, and wish him on in a successful war with the Slavic usurpers, who are coming even closer than our own powers to dominion in the continent -- more than a third of it is under his control, while I own but a fourth, as do you. Together we can defeat him -- alone we will go separately to our separate dooms. We owe more to destiny than that!

Berlin -- Russia: Perhaps your army is going south. Could your fleet go east, too?

Berlin -- France: I'll support you into London in the fall, or take Edinburgh if I can....

France -- Germany: Belgium is yours.

France -- Italy: Our borders are still neutralized.

France -- GM: How come my moves for Austria and Turkey weren't printed?

Italy -- World: We have made completely neutral moves this turn while we wait for ideas. Past treaties are not necessarily binding but they probably would influence future actions.

Deadline for SUM '05 propaganda (no SUM retreats) -- Noon, Tues., July 9 (FALL, 1905 deadline will be July 23).

Propaganda --

Electorate of Bulgaria and Upper Sweetwater Canyon (3 Feb 1906) -- We are strong and most of the rest of you are weak. But we detest benevolent protectorates, and are fully willing to remain at peace with anybody who has the same idea. This applies particularly to the Russian Empire, who seems like a pleasant enough person. Which is inadvertent personification of a political entity, but who cares -- the idea's the same in either case. Be nice, because we have plans that don't involve you in any way. This applies, inter alia, to most of the rest of you too.

Jasi (8 Jan 1906) -- Order was restored to Rumania today as the celebrated condottiere Sir Elric Lessingham entered the city, fresh from his defeat of the proud, pestilent, pusillanimous, pernicious, pornocratic tyrant of Holmia, Horius Peery. Upon hearing the news, the Parliament inanimously elected him Supreme Ruler of All Rumania and ended its five-year continuous session. The Supreme Ruler's first official act was to declare war on and lead the army to the conquest of CLASSIFIED MOST SECRET.

Propaganda --

ASDP Party Headquarters, somewhere in the Black Forest -- "Fear not, for I am but a lowly toad!"

Mun/Por -- Kie/Rom: I have a large problem. He is Bre/Tri. I wonder what he is up to?

Mun/Por -- Edi/Mos: Mun/Por seeks an alliance with you.

NSG -- At it again, Buddy?

Issue Number 5 -- Postal Diplomacy Game SCC(1967Yaw) ---- War in Space and Time....

SCC (The Foundation Game) -- HISTORY TO REPEAT ITSELF AS GM GOOFS AGAIN!

The Players, Rules and Board -- See SUPERCAL #'s 10, 11, 13. Note that George Schelz is playing the FIRST FOUNDATION in place of Alan Huff (not the FIRST EMPIRE).

GM Note -- GM goofed in ASTRA #3, and allowed Margaret Gemignani to support thru hyperspace with four units at the same time. This is clearly in violation of SCC game rule #6, which states, in part, that "only one unit may pass through a spacewarp at the same time" -- since a unit gives up its move in order to support, this rule clearly limits supports through a single hyperspace linkage to one per turn. Rather than set a precedent by allowing this error to stand, the following corrections should be made to ASTRA #3: Under "SPRING, 8003 moves", opp. ASSOC. OF INDEPENDENT TRADERS, underline "FFFF Haven(46) (S) via hs F Loris(55)"; change "FFF Iss(50) (S) F Loris(55)" to "FFF Iss(50) (S) F Loris(55); underline "F Loris(55) (H)", and add after it "(D (50 or o.b.))". Opposite FIRST FOUNDATION moves, remove underlining from beneath "F Daribow(56)-Loris(55)", "FFFF Terminus(60) (S) F 56-55", and F Anacreon(59) (S) F 56-55". #### In ASTRA #4, add "SUMMER, 1903 retreat -- AIT (Gemignani): F Loris (55) (R) Iss(50)". #### Now what this all means is that there is a FIRST FOUNDATION unit in 55 instead of an AIT unit, and there is an additional AIT unit in 50. And there has been no new precedent established allowing more than one unit at a time to pass through or support through a single hyperspace linkage. So some of you are advised to revise your orders for FALL, 8003.

Deadline for revised FALL, 8003 orders -- Noon, Tues., July 9 (AUT/WINT, 8003 deadline will be July 23).
